Official Township Business

On January 4, 2022, the Township held its Re-organization Meeting and Mayor Greenbaum provided the 2022 State of the Township Address. Many exciting updates were given, most notably, the continued development of Valley Brook Park, the Budd Lake Beach Redevelopment project and the anticipated acquisition of 5 Pondview Lane. Also emphasized was the importance of tax stability and the announcement that there will be no municipal tax increase for the tenth year in a row.

Over the past several months, Departments have been working hard and focusing on developing the 2022 budget which was formally adopted on March 22, 2022. The Township has budgeted over $10 million in capital spending to include over $1 million toward road resurfacing, embarking on a sidewalk replacement project in the Cloverhill development, refurbishing tennis and basketball courts, adding a pavilion at the Turkey Brook Park Event Field, installing a new soccer turf field by partnering with the Mount Olive Soccer Club and purchasing a new Budd Lake Fire Truck, Flanders Fire Brush Truck and Public Works Sweeper. The Township is also soliciting proposals for Architectural Services for a potential Senior Center expansion project to provide the Health Department a dedicated space in order to best serve the community and to create additional space at the Municipal Building for the Police Department as the Township's needs continue to grow.

Department Highlight

Health Department

The Mount Olive Health Department continues to provide public health services for Mount Olive, Mt. Since the beginning of the pandemic, over 6,200 COVID19 cases have been investigated in our Township. In addition to disease prevention, other responsibilities include promoting healthy behaviors, assuring accessibility of health services, senior transportation, vital statistics, public health nursing and environmental health. The Health Department has also conducted a Township Health Assessment in order to develop a comprehensive plan on health concerns of our residents. The full report can be found on our website.

Please note, that a new contract has been awarded for Veterinarian/Impoundment Services of lost animals with Common Sense for Animals located in Stewartsville, NJ. This is a temporary solution as we search for a closer provider.
